December Newsletter

Hi everyone, I want to thank all of the members and the board of Eaton County Genealogical Society for their cooperation, help and participation this year. The Bake Sale at Frontier Days was a challenge but the outcome was outstanding.

We have had many good presentations during the year and lots of good tips on how to do genealogy research.

There have been some challenges but overall the society has become stronger as a result of these difficulties.

I believe that the new officers will be able to lead the society effectively and I ask for your patience and cooperation as they get started planning for 2018.

May you all have a joyous Christmas season.

Chuck Chamberlain

Incoming President Message

Hello to all and a happy and safe holiday season,

My name is Chris Brown and I am your incoming president for next year. I want to take this opportunity to introduce myself to all of you.

I have been married for 37+ years to my wife Kathy. We have raised four children and are enjoying our empty nest. I am a retiree from General Motors. I have served as appointed or elected official in many organizations I have been a part of. I hope to apply what I have learned to help our society.

I have been volunteering at the Eaton County Genealogical Society for a couple of years since my retirement, mostly helping with the Probate scanning project. I started my family history research way back in 1974. (before the web and computers) and have many cousins in Eaton County.

I am looking forward to the opportunity of meeting and working with all of you. The society is in good shape and we have the past officers to thank for all their hard work in service to our society. My personal thanks goes to those who have taken me under their wing as we go through this transition.

Sincerely,

Chris Brown

p.s. As you will hear, if you did not know already, this will be the last issue of the newsletter. The editor, Sherry Copenhaver is taking on some new responsibilities as recording secretary, we have asked for someone to take over the newsletter. but so far no luck, if you wish to help with this important position please contact anyone on the board.

You may contact me with any questions or comments via email at:

2017 Bus Trip to Allen County Library!

Shirley again led a wonderful trip to the Fort Wayne library.

John took care of the Charlotte people meeting at the ECGS Courthouse and he noticed that maybe we should meet there more often! HaHa- It was still decorated for Halloween.

2017 Bus Trip to Allen County Library!

Our annual bus trip to the Allen County Public Library (ACPL) was held 4 November 2017. If you have never been on one of our bus trips, you don't know what you are missing. Those who have been on one of our tours already are usually the first to register. Always great to see so many returnees and to also have some join us who have not been there before.

The ACPL Genealogy Center is a unique and valuable resource for the Northeastern Indiana community and the entire genealogical community at large. They have one of the largest research collections available including records from around the world. The library specializes in Canadian, British Isles, African-American and American Indian research. Its collection comprises 588,645 microfilms and microfiches, 55,804 volumes of family history books, 206,366 volumes of local history books, 28,575 microfilm reels of historical newspapers, thousands of maps and gazetteers, and more.

Their staff specializes in genealogy and is always available to help. Researchers can take advantage of access to librarians with years of training in research methods and various subjects.

We had a delightful dinner at the Cracker Barrel before returning home. It is always great to hear some of the success stories of the day.

Our next trip is scheduled for 3 November 2018. Plan on joining us.

Civil War hits Eaton County Family Hard

By Gary Copenhaver

The Francis and Lucinda (Huff) Ploof family of Eaton County Michigan sent its father and four sons into the conflict.

Lucinda certainly gave to her country! Photo of Lucinda per Ancestry.

Lucinda Huff Ploof (Per Find A Grave)

- Birth 11 Jul 1806 Pennsylvania, USA
- Death 22 Jul 1894
- Burial Maple Hill Cemetery Charlotte, Eaton County, Michigan, USA
- Plot B-68 No Marker

Memorial ID 83656594

Lucinda Huff Ploof wife of Francis Ploof. Lucinda was born in Coldchester Pa., July 11, 1806.

She lived in Chester until 1870, then moved to Charlotte where she buried her only daughter Susan Knapp, husband Francis and youngest son.

Her father and grandfather were patriots and soldiers and her husband a veteran of the war of 1812 and the civil war.

In 1860 her second son died of consumption. His only regret was that he could not have fought for the union. Four of the five left went as volunteers to the Civil war. One came home to die, two fill southern graves, only John, the eldest, returned to go in a short time to Nebraska. Throughout the war she was an untiring correspondent and many a boy in blue treasured mother Ploof's words written in those trying times.

After the return of her husband Francis from the Civil War ,he was unable to earn much of a living due to wounds from the fighting. Old age was spent in extreme poverty and Lucinda's clothing became ragged. When she came into possession of some cloth she soon sewed herself a fine new dress, which she proudly wore to a Sunday affair. On the way home, she and Francis happened on a house fire. The owner's wife was standing outside, wearing only a petticoat, all of her clothing was burning in the house. Without a thought, Lucinda removed her new dress, the only beautiful possession she had and gave it to the woman. She was well remembered in the family tradition for her sweet disposition and kindness.

Lucinda died July 22, 1894.

Civil War hits Eaton County Family Hard

Francis Ploof and sons John, Dewitt, Francis A., and Charles all served, each in a different unit.

Only two of the five survived the war.

The father Francis (1793-1883) served with the 12th Michigan Infantry and returned blind for the rest of his life. He served in the War of 1812 as well. He is buried in Maple Hill, Charlotte.

John W. (1833-1913) served with Co. G of the 12th MI Infantry and was the only son to survive the war and shortly after returning home to Eaton County, he removed out West to rear a family and live out his life in Nebraska. He is buried in Hillcrest Cemetery in Decatur, Burt County, Nebraska.

Charles (1838-1862), being severely ill, was furloughed home to die from Company M, 2nd Michigan Cavalry in October 1861 from Missouri. He died of consumption at home in Vermontville in 1862.

Son Francis Allen aka Allen Francis (1841-1862) of the 6th Michigan succumbed to disease in the swamps near Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Dewitt Clinton (1846-1864), while serving with the 7th Michigan Cavalry, was badly wounded and captured and died as a Confederate prisoner in Virginia. His body was never recovered.

The 1860 census shows John W. living in Chester Township and the rest of the family living in Vermontville, Eaton County, Michigan.

A Genealogist's Christmas Eve

'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even my spouse.
The dining room table with clutter was spread with pedigree charts and with letters which said...
"Too bad about the data for which you wrote;
It sank in a storm on an ill-fated boat"
Stacks of old copies of wills and the such were proof that my work had become much too much.

Our children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugarplums danced in their heads.
And I at my table was ready to drop
From work on my album with photos to crop.
Christmas was here, and of such was my lot
That presents and goodies and toys I'd forgot.
Had I not been so busy with grandparents' wills,
I'd not have forgotten to shop for such thrills.

While others had bought gifts that would bring Christmas cheer,
I'd spent time researching those birthdates and years.
While I was thus musing about my sad plight,
A strange noise on the lawn gave me such a great fright.
Away to the window I flew in a flash,
Tore open the drapes and I yanked up the sash.
When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But an overstuffed sleigh and eight small reindeer.
Up to the housetop the reindeer they flew.

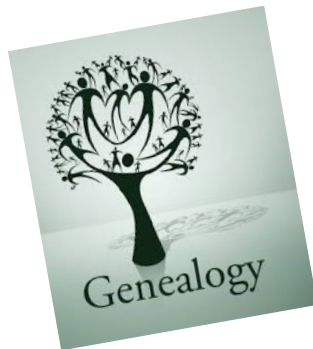

With a sleigh full of toys, and 'ole Santa Claus, too.
And then in a twinkle, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of thirty-two hoofs.
The TV antenna was no match for their horns,
And look at our roof with hoof-prints adorned.
As I drew in my head, and bumped it on the sash.
Down the cold chimney fell Santa — KER-RASH!

A Genealogist's Christmas Eve (continued)

"Dear" Santa had come from the roof in a wreck.
And tracked soot on the carpet, (I could wring his short neck!)
Spotting my face good old Santa could see
I had no Christmas spirit you'd have to agree.
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work
And filled all the stockings. (I felt like a jerk).

Here was Santa, who'd brought us such gladness and joy;
When I'd been too busy for even one toy.
He spied my research on the table all spread
"A genealogist" He cried! (My face was all red!)
"Tonight I've met many like you, Santa grinned.

As he pulled from his sack a large book he had penned.
I gazed with amazement — the cover it read
'Genealogy Lines for Which You Have Plead'.
"I know what it's like as a genealogy bug,"
He said as he gave me a great Santa hug.

While the elves make the sleighful of toys I now carry.
I do some research in the North Pole Library!
A special treat I am thus able to bring.
To genealogy folks who can't find a thing.
Now off you go to your bed for a rest,
I'll clean up the house from this genealogy mess."

As I climbed up the stairs full of gladness and glee,
I looked back at Santa who'd brought much to me.
While settling in bed, I heard Santa's clear whistle.
To his team, which then rose like the down of a thistle.
And I heard him exclaim as he flew out of sight,
"Family History is Fun! Merry Christmas! Goodnight!"

Ways You Can Help to Volunteer at (or for) ECGS

Please note: We appreciate any help we receive! We will never pressure you to help us! We only ask if you have volunteered for room duty and you cannot make it, call (phone numbers provided) us and let us know to get coverage.

Room Volunteers: Room volunteers are here to help people who come in to research. While some of our room volunteers actually help do the research, this is not a requirement. The main tasks are to answer the phone and guide the researchers to our various areas they can research.

Probate Packet Scanning: This is an on-going project that meets regularly at the ECGS room to scan probate packets on Tuesday afternoons. However, anyone can scan when the room is open.

Indexing and/or proofreading at home: Using scanned images, we can show you how to index and/or proofread at your own leisure at home.

Mini Take-Home projects: This is a brand new type of project we are trying. People have taken home several projects and we will see how that goes.

Special Projects: Possibly set up an area in our room that will have special projects that you can work on when you come in. Again... new idea to try! More to come on this.

Every effort is made to present authentic material; the Eaton County Genealogical Society cannot be held responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of material furnished by contributors

Thank You!

Thanks to all of you who donate in any way to our Society! Our Society is run by volunteers and is funded by donations and fund-raisers.
