Website Suggestions/Comments
Publish materials from our meetings.
I think the website is a little "busy," and could be improved by looking at other Societies' websites and seeing what they do better.
A way for out-of-towners (members and non-members) to submit their research
Great website
I find the current site very useful
I would really like to see it redone. I find it outdated and I never know if I'm actually logged in or not either. Both MSU and LCC teach students this trade. It might be possible for them to redo this one for free as a learning experience to the students
Not at the moment.

I use Firefox. Don't know if that's good or bad but although the concept is good to divide the information into left side links & a top & bottom window, it becomes too cluttered; too much information in a small space. I also couldn't see where to sign in Great Site.
I would love if any of your lectures were available on YouTube since I can't attend meetings.

Try to solicit more genealogy materials from Eaton County people.
Wish I lived closer as many ancestors lived in Eaton County - I live in Berrien County, MI.
Appreciate this website and Facebook page. Thank you.
Appreciate chance to learn things and having a positive experience. Appreciate the helpfulness of the volunteers and office assistance.
I live in Katy TX and have been to the MIEGS 3 times to do research on my ancestors. I found everyone very helpful and very nice on all my visits. I greatly appreciate every ones hard work on keeping the society going.
Making sure those not in town have time to plan to be there. Classes, notes, etc.
I have many papers to give ECGS. I'm working on organizing them. My gr-grandfather, John Vickery purchased a quarter section of land in Sec. 31 of Benton Twp. in 1844. The farm remained in our family until 2010. Family names of interest are Vickery, Haun,
You do incredible work. Must be one of the best county societies in the U.S.
None - Continue on with what you do.
As an organization, the volunteers do a ton of work. You all should feel very pleased with what you accomplish. You are a hard-working group of dedicated individuals. Thank you.
Your records in Eaton County Gen. Society and at County Offices are some of the bet I've used.
Enjoy coming there. Will be there this year. Try to come at least once a year. Have many ancestors buried in Eaton Co.
I am not local, so I can't help much with a WWI event, but I do have a photo of my Grandfather in his WWI uniform. He was in the 119th Field Artillery, serving in multiple battle in France.
