George W. Ervay 1845 - 1863 CIVIL WAR LETTERS

Transcribed from Originals now in possession of Betty Moon Melson

It is with many thanks for the combined contribution of Robert Haigh & Ophalia Parish that a copy of these letters have been given to the Eaton County Genealogical Society, with permission to print them here in the "Quest".

INTRODUCTION

George W. Ervay was born in New York State in 1845. In 1860 he lived in Onieda Township, Eaton County, Michigan with his parents, Daniel and Eliza Ervay. The 1860 Census lists George's age as 15. While George was in the service, his family moved to Chester Township near Liza's parents, Daniel and Dorothy Shaver Wise. Daniel Ervay died at Chester in 1883. In 1907, Eliza died in Marshall, Michigan. George's younger brother, Orrin was the father of my maternal grandmother, Florence Ervay Root.

Although little more than 16 when he joined the army in 1861, George was quite able to express himself in writing, whether he was describing his surroundings, narrating an experience or stating his opiions. By his choice of words one can often determine his emotional state which runs the gamut from love to hate, from elation to dispair and from bravado to fear.

He used almost no punctuation and few capitol letters in his writing, instead he generally penned his messages in steady strings of words. I have therefore used my best judgment in adding extra spaces to break the text into sentences for easier reading. Otherwise the text was typed as written with the limitations of my word processor.

Betty Melson lent me the letters in Michigan so that Florence Lembeck and I could have them photocopied. Because the photocopies were painfully hard to read and comprehend it was decided to transcribe them while the originals were still in my possession. I hope your find them interesting.

Second cousin Betty Moon Melson and first cousin Florence Spear Lembeck are great grandchildren of Orrin L. Ervay. Our groups numbers more than seventy people of whom I have knowledge.

Blake L. Parish.

Found At Last

By Betty (Dahlem) Goostrey

Last year, I received the Civil War papers on my great-grandfather, John Dahlem, from the National Archives. The information in those papers told me that my great-grandfather was 44 years old when he died in the hospital in Nashville, Tennessee.

The papers also contain his grave site number in the City Cemetery.

A National Cemetery for soldiers was started in Nashville in 1867. My great grandfather's remains were moved there.

This spring, my husband and I stopped there and found his new grave site and stone. This picture was taken April 1997 at that site.

Computers and Genealogy by Byron Bray

byron.bray@cmug.com

Well, summer's finally here; isn't it grand?? I know I should be out hiking Silver Falls, but I'd much rather spend the afternoon with you, getting down to the nitty-gritty of doing genealogical research on computer. Really!!

Last time, we covered the basics of computers, the Internet and the World Wide Web. You may want to re-read that article to refresh your memory.) I concluded it by explaining that a computer could be used to search the World Wide Web (or "the Web", for short) for pages containing any word or name and I listed a tiny, tiny fraction of the immense number of resources on the Web that can be of use to genealogists.

This time, I thought I'd cover the Web and some of its resources in a bit more detail. As with last column, I'm going to avoid getting too technical, as much as possible. At the same time, I know I'll have to lay down some of the basic concepts in much the same way as a builder lays down a foundation; so that we can build on them later, so please bear with me. Again, I'll rely on you, dear reader, to let me know if anything in these columns is confusing or unclear. I'll give you my e-mail address number at the end of this column (which I should have done last time). If you have any comments or need help or clarification, please e-mail me; I shall be happy to help you as my time permits.

Some of you have computers and are "online" (hooked up to the Internet) already. There are also probably quite a few of you who have computers and use them to write letters, etc., but have not yet begun to use them to access the Internet. And there are still others who have not yet gotten computers, either because you don't yet perceive the value of using them or because you want to avoid adding one more cumbersome appliance to your life. No matter which of these categories you fall into, I need to tell you that, whether you have one or not, the computer CAN be of great use TO YOU in finding genealogical information.

I hope to help those of you who do not yet have computers to become familiar with them by learning to use the computers available to you through our library (or through friends or fellow genealogists) to find the information you seek. I also hope to help those of you who have computers but are not yet " online" to learn how easy and inexpensive it can be and, if you desire it, to help you get set up and running. (I am not connected with any company and have nothing to sell.) Finally, I hope to aid those of you who have computers and are already online to learn to use them more efficiently and more powerfully.

As we did last time, we'll cover one or two basic concepts before we plunge into the fun stuff . . .

problems, let me know; I'll be happy to help you as my time permits. Now, let's talk about some of the great pages you can visit . . .

Probably the biggest and most useful site in the world (in my own opinion) is called "Cyndi's List of Genealogy Sites on the Internet". It was posted and is maintained by a wonderful person named Cyndi Howells, who spends a LOT of her time finding Web-pages of resources that genealogists can use and putting "links" to those pages on her web-site, so that you can visit them all. At my last count, she had over 19,250 links to valuable genealogical resources on her page!!!

Some of the links on her page (in roughly alphabetical order) include: "Acadian, Cajun and Creole sites", "Adoption Records", "Books, Microfilm & Microfiche Records", "Cemeteries, Funeral Homes and Obituaries", "Census Related Sites Worldwide", "Databases, Search Sites, Surname Lists", "Events and Activities Worldwide", "Family Bibles", "Finding People (Phone numbers, email addresses, Places. etc.)", "Heraldry", "How-to", "Huguenot", "Jewish", "Land Records, Deeds, Homesteads, Etc.", "LDS & Family History Centers", "Libraries, Archives & Museums", "Magazines, Journals, Columns, Newsletters & Pamphlets", "Medieval", "Mennonite", "Military Resources Worldwide", "Native American", "Newspapers", "Photographs & Memories" (a site on how to preserve photo's, family treasures & genealogical research), "Professional Researchers, Volunteers & Others", "Quaker", "Queries", "Religion & Churches", "Roots-L & RootsWeb" (I'll explain this one in my next column), "Royalty & Nobility", "Search Engines" (these let you search all over the world for the resources you need), "Ships, Passenger Lists & Immigration", "Societies & Groups", "Software & Computers", "Surnames, "Family Associations & Family Newsletters", and "Terms, Phrases, Dictionaries & Glossaries".

In addition, there are links to genealogical resources in EVERY country, region and culture in the world. There are also links to the personal Web-pages of thousands and thousands of genealogists all over the world. Click on any one of these names on her page and you are instantly (or almost instantly) transported there!!! To get to Cyndi's page, simply go to "Locations", in whichever browser you use, and type in "www.oz.net/~cyndihow/sites.htm" Press the "Return" key and - presto! - you'll be there!!

Well, I can see the editors shaking their collective finger at me, now, for going on so long, so I'd better close for this time. If you need help or have questions and are online already, you can e-mail me at Byron.Bray@cmug.com.

Last month, we covered the basics of what computers are good at: acquiring, manipulating, storing and communicating information. Most of you who have used computers have some experience at typing things into a computer and reading the results on your screen. In order to communicate with other computers over the Internet, there are, basically, two additional things you need. The first is a "modem". A modem is just a little box that plugs into your computer and also plugs into your telephone line. It lets your computer talk with other computers over the telephone lines.

The second item is a software program that uses the modem to hook your computer up to the Internet and search around the Web for the items you are looking for. This piece of software is called a "browser", because it allows you to browse the Web in much the same way that you would browse at your local bookstore; sometimes you just want to wander around, hoping to discover new things that may be of use or of interest to you. Of course, at other times you know exactly what you want and you just want to go right to it and get it. A browser lets you do both!

There are currently two Web browsers that are the most widely used: the first is called "Netscape Navigator", the second is called "Microsoft Internet Explorer". Both have similar features, both are easy to use, and both will run on Macintosh computers and on PC's. Personally, I prefer Netscape Navigator, which has the added benefit of being the one that many libraries use. This makes it easier to get help at the library, when you're having trouble using the program or finding something on the Web, and for those of you who use the library's computers to learn on or to search on, it means that if and when you get your own computer (or get online, if you already have one) you'll be familiar with the program and its features. Both programs will let you save address-books of pages that you may want to visit again.

To find a page without having to browse or search for it each time, it helps to have its you specify the exact page you want to get to, no matter where, in the world, it is. address. Early in the development of the Web, an addressing scheme was devised to let Browsers have a feature called "Location", which lets you enter the address of a page and then takes you right there. The address of a page always starts with "www", which lets the Internet know that the address is on the World Wide Web. The rest of the address tells the Internet where to go to find the page you want. So when you see a web address such as "www.opb.org", it means that it's on the Web, its name is "opb" and that it's an organization. If you type this address into a browser, it will take you to Oregon Public Broadcasting's Web-site. (A Web page is also called a "Web-site" or "site", so when you hear those names, just know that they are just the "pages" we've been talking about, OK?)

That's all the technical stuff for this month and, really, it's almost everything you need to know to understand and use the Web. Now that you have a solid foundation of basic concepts, we can concentrate on what the Web has to offer, where to find it and how to use it. If, in your explorations, you have questions or

Emma Stoddard's 1843 Diary

Owned by Courthouse Square Association Transcribed(as written) and researched by Leila Noah Klaiss

Early first person records of life in Charlotte and Eaton County are rare. When 14-year-old Emma Stoddard began keeping this diary in 1843, she lived in the Eagle Hotel (located in Charlotte on the northeast corner of Lawrence and Cochran Avenues) with her parents, William and Mable (Bostwick) Stoddard. William was the keeper of the hotel, which also served as the seat of county government, so Emma was in the thick of activity. She was born in 1829 and came with her parents and her sister, Marion, to Charlotte from Grand Rapids in 1839. The hotel, which was built in 1838, burned May 20, 1862.

Ian 13 Saturday (1843) - A strange day & a strange date for the commencement of my much talked of Journal. yet as it is, from time to time I have delayed its commencement & here I am, but to my journal. Not very early when I got up, helped get the breakfast. helped Celeste get ready for Quarterly Meeting, before she left Mr. Carpenter came up & brought the Judges coat from his sister. I gave him $3.50 to pay for the making of it, (money earned by recording for F.F. White) Mr. C. made quite a lengthy call, talks of bringing in a store of goods. Miss M.M. Fisher called. Made a bed tick. Mr. Jordon called towards evening & stayed to tea. in the evening sewed till quite late. day rather cold.

Jan. 14 Sunday - Spent the forenoon doing house work and writing. Mr. Waters & D. Kinney called. Father, Marion & myself went to Church in the afternoon. Mr. Bronson took tea with us. Went to Church again in the evening. saw Mrs. Williams, Mrs. S. Searls, Miss Adeline Fisher, Miss Phoebe Searls, Mr. Carpenter & Tansour. Judge returned from quarterly meeting. Commenced a note to Miss M.M. Fisher (Marie).

Jan. 15 Monday - Helped do the house work & sewed on my dress. Miss Marion Davis came in the morning. teased her considerable about Mr. C. at the party at Mr. Duntons. She stayed all night invited us all to her party. promised her a "cookey." Celeste & Fred came home from meeting - quite a pleasant day - but rained some in the evening.

Jan. 16 Tuesday - Sewed in the morning and finished the note to Maria, to send by Miss Adeline Davis. Mr. White went & took her home in his cutter. Sewed all day. Mr. Gale & Mr. Cushing came up, sang the new "Clay Song" for Mr. Gale commencing

"If e'er I should wish to get married" & e.

Mr. Gale & wife go to Tecumseh day after tomorrow; Cold! Cold! Cold!

Jan. 17 Wednesday - Sewed in the forenoon. in the afternoon wrote some. The mail came in, but brought me no letters or papers. Mr. Kidendall brought me a pair of shoes but they were to small. Towards evening Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth came up to make a visit. In the evening I sang several songs with Celestia for Mr. B. Very cold and stormy. sent a paper to Stella Humphrey.

Jan. 18, (Thursday) - Got up midling early. helped get breakfast. Sewed in the forenoon, about noon Mr. & Mrs. B. went home and took Polly with them. In the afternoon Miss Allen came over and stayed the afternoon & evening, she seems like quite a pretty girl, but is rather strange in some of her ways. In the evening I received a long "billet doux" from my dear Mary; written in her own sweet style, half real, half imaginary; there is a sweet blending of the real & the ideal, perfectly fascinating. The day is by far the most lovely we have had in a long time & the sun shines forth as brightly as in the sweet spring time, when all nature looks glad & countless multitudes of flowers, sweet inhabitants of the forest! look up with such holy & confiding love to the protection of their life and beauty, by Sol's broad beams. Who can be sad when all nature is gay? The sweet serenity of the world speaks peace to a troubled mind & rest to a heart at case.

Jan. 19 Friday - Finished my dress today. Recorded a deed. commenced my Hood. In the evening wrote a letter to W.B. Barnum. Mail came in from Battle Creek. Quite a pleasant day.

Jan 20 Saturday - Today F.F. White raised his barn and mother got supper for his men, over thirty in number. sewed some in the forenoon, but did house work most of the day. Oscar Davis came down in the evening. Commenced a note to Ma chere Marie - oh how sad I feel. Imagination leads me captive at her wile; "again I tread the well remembered paths so often traced in happy blissful childhood. I would fain believe myself as happy now as then, but how harsh and grating sounds the voice that brings me back & reminds me that I am on the verge of womanhood, no longer thought of as a child, but looked upon as a woman, calculated to fulfill the duties & support the responsibilities of a woman, but I must away with such thoughts; I must learn to, to bear hardships without a murmur & coldness with apathy, why should I resine? I have beheld the most fondly cherished dreams & anticipations of my youth destroyed all my bright imagings faded away yet why despair, many very many gifted with keener sensibilities & more tender than I, have suffered much more & murmured not I must cease. The day has been lovely.

Jan 21 Sunday - Once more 'tis the holy Sabbath! a dreamy, holy stillness pervades the scene; we have no church but mediation does much good; we can spend the day in meditation "commune with thy our own hearts & be still," there is not the same sweet holiness about a winter sabbath as there is connected with a bright summer day - the sun seems to shed a sweeter brighter & more effulgent glory over the scene; the very trees and grass seems a brighter green; the flowers look up more meckly as their incense is wafted on high to the great Giver. The birds seem to modulate their notes to the softest sweetest harmony as though hymning praises to the "Great Spirit" & the very atmosphere is more pure, by the holy quiet. Read in the bible in the forenoon; in the afternoon finished my note to Marie & sent her "Rienze the last of the Tribunes" to read. In the evening, my imagination reveled for awhile in the scenes portrayed by the powerful masterly hand of "L.E.L."

"In such an hour as this, the bosom turns Back to its early feeling; man forgets His stern ambition & his worldly cares, And woman loathes the pretty vanities That mar her nature's beauty; like the dew, Shedding its sweetness o'er the sleeping flowers Till all their morning freshness is revived, Kindly affections, sad, but yet sweet thoughts Melt the cold eyes long, long unused to weep."

And again

"Oh! glorious is the gifted poets lot, And touching more than glorious 'tis companion of the heart's least earthy hour' The voice of love & sadness calling forth Tears from their silent fountain tis to have Share in all natures loveliness; giving flowers A life as sweet more lasting than their own' And catching from green wood & lofty pine Language mysterious as musical' Making the thoughts which else had only been Like colors on the morning earliest hour, Immortal, & worth immortality; Yielding the hero that eternal name For Which he fought; making the patriot's deed A stirring record for long after time; Cherishing tender thoughts which else had passed Away like tears; & saving the loved dead From death's worst part - it's deep forgetfulness.

At 7 oclock Celeste, Marion, Mr. Johnson, Mr. White, and myself went to Mr. [??] William's & sung until nine oclock. Saw Miss Allen, she has been quite sick all day with a cold. A very pleasant day.

Jan 22 Monday - Spent the day sewing, helped Celeste sew on Marion's dress. Mother finished my new Hood alias "Crazy Jane". Oh what a day. Warm and drizzley, tho snow seems about to take "French leave". Mr. I. received a note from Miss C.S. Jordan inviting him to a party on Wednesday next. In the evening the mist settled into a rain & the prospect of sleighing to the party at Mr. Davis (which is tomorrow) is rather unfavorable. Quite late when Celeste & myself went to bed.

Jan 23 Tuesday - Today is the all eventful day! the day which decides the happiness of Marion Davis at least for this week. Spent the forenoon doing a variety of things. About noon Mr. Davis came down from Tom Benton with a good substantial sled & pair of "horned horses" to gallant us up to Tom B. & after a little while we all started. Miss Celeste, Marion, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Davis & myself, after a very pleasant ride, nothing occurring worthy of notice, but finding some tremendous mud holes we arrived at the house of Mr. D. We were warmly welcomed by Miss Marion & Mrs. Davis, & found one invoice of guests had arrived before us. Miss & Mr. Carpenter & Tamour Searls. After getting thoroughly warmed we commenced quilting, a few moments after we had thus industriously set ourselves to work, another conveyance arrived bring Miss Phoebe Searls, Miss Adeline Fisher, Mr. John & William Searls & Mr. Wood. At dark came the two Mr. Collins & Mr. Waters. After the quilt was finished, the company partook of an excellent supper & waited upon in inimitable style by the Misses Davis, apres soupres' we chatted awhile & then there were several plays, in which, However I did not join thinking that (to judge from appearances at Least.) my room was pleasant with out doubt; & feeling very well satisfied with my quite corner; & not wishing to intrude where I was not wanted. I was very much pleased however with the attentions of certain Mr. --- to Miss M Davis. I forgot to mention that just at dark Miss M.M. Fisher came over, I had several very pleasant chats with Miss Carpenter, Miss Phoebe Searls, Miss Davis & also Mrs. D. In the latter part of the evening, Miss C & Myself sang & Mr. C. & Miss D. Miss F. & Mr. I, Miss S. & Mr. W Marion & Mr. C. danced one or two figures. After all were ready to go about 1/2 past 12 I yielded to the request of some of the company and sung the Whig song. Had quite an argument with Mr. Carpenter on politics he, I find is a rousing Loco Fobs - poor man. After the guests had all departed, Miss Fisher, Miss Davis, Marion & myself danced a french four. Oscar now lighted a hickory torch & bidding the "gude folks" good night, I started home with Miss F. according to previous agreement. After a quite a pleasant walk we arrived at Mr. Stoddards & finding a warm nice fire we soon laid aside our "ball costumes & seated before the fire" in robe dechambre we chatted a few moments & went to bed, not long did we withstand the powerful influence of "tired nature's sweet restorer" but in spite of the many things we had to say we soon went to sleep. No Dreams.

Jan 24 Wednesday - When I woke in the morning, Mary had already risen & a bright cheerful fire was burning in the fire place. Marie soon came in & bid me a good morning. I arose dressed myself & went out into the kitchen where I was very kindly greeted by Mr. & Mrs. Stoddard. partook of a very good breakfast. after which we attended family prayer. Mary & myself then went into the other room & sang some, chatted some and read some. She showed me her scrap book & her magazine. About noon Mrs. Davis & Mrs. Fisher, Marion D. Marion S. Celeste, & Edgar came down & stayed to tea. I teased Miss Marion to my hearts content. sung some & [??] After tea & many kind invitations to come again we all left & wended our way homeward. called at Mr. D's a few moments after which we returned home in the same conveyance which carried us there & arrived at the Court House just at dark. in perfect good humor with myself & the world at large. & also thankful to Mr. D. for his gallantry. In the evening Mr. Wated[?] called, but as Celeste & myself were very sleepy we were so very impolite as to go coucher & leave him Very sweet dream. I suppose not remembering anything to the contrary. Cold [Written on side of page is the following] Forgot to mention that Marion lent me Paul Clifford. one of Bulwers novels. a secret. as they were presented to her upon condition that she would neither lend or give away.

Ian 25 Thursday - Spent the day somewhat idly. made a cap for mother & recorded a deed in the forenoon. in the afternoon curled my hair & read in Paul Clifford. Mother spent the afternoon at Mrs. Johns. In the evening I wrote some & knit some. Oh how cold.! Like Greenland! wrote to Mrs. Cummings of Battle Creek". Set up very late with Celeste.

Ian 26 Friday - Recorded Deeds, all the forenoon, in the afternoon, it was so delightfully pleasant that I put on my shawl & hood & went over to see Miss Allen & Mr. Williams, had quite a pleasant visit. Came home just at dark & found a note from Miss Lydia Carpenter. did not do much in the evening. Received a note from Miss M.A. Davis.

Jan 27 Saturday - Wrote some, sewed some & knit some. had a very bad cold & felt miserably all day. Miss Allen called in the afternoon. Quite pleasant. H.I.L. came up from Marshall.

Jan 28 Sunday - While we were eating breakfast Mr. Carpenter came in & said Mrs. Worden was dead. She who has so long lingered upon the confines of the grave, has at least passed into eternity, "gone to that bourue from whence no traveller returns." left her children without the care & guidance of a mother, which they so much need. Helped do up the work in the forenoon & went to Church, to hear Mr. Knox preach a midling sermon. Saw Miss Allen, Miss Fisher, Mr. Carpenter & several others. Came home & read all day. Oh! how very, very dull it is here. Cold! Cold!

Jan 29 monday - Helped do up the house work & did up a Cap for Mother. Mrs. Davis & Mrs. Cook came down this morning to attend the funeral. A Mr. Dailey came from Jackson this morning with a letter of introduction from Henry Frink to father. A young lawyer (that is to be) he is about the common height, rather slender, dark complexion, dark eyes, black wiry hair & red cheeks, when you look at the side of his face, he his nothing to boast of, full in his face, quite papable. So much for a Jackson lawyer. About Eleven oclock, Celestia, Marion, Father, Mr. Lawrance, Mr. & Mrs. Davis & myself went to funeral, Mr. Knox preached. a very full house & quite an attentive audience, heart stricken indeed must be the mourner! behold him, his face bowed down upon his hands & the tears dropping from his eyes, aye, from eyes "all unused to melting Mood," it is no disgrace for him to weep now. (Strange, what coward Death makes of us! Look, the strong trembles as he sees the pale horse & his rider pass by, & well may he fear,) yes well may the mourners now weep; She is gone; gone forever, she who was the light of his existence; the sharer of his joys & the soother of his cares, the guide & guardian of his children & the sunbeam of his domestic bliss, his children now look to him for the support of a father & the care of a mother. bitter indeed must be the draught he now has taken. Returned home from meeting & assisted in getting Tea. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. D. stayed to tea. Mr Knox also came here to stay. In the evening Mr. H.I.L, Mr. Dailey and myself sang some, the Whig song among others. Set up until very late indeed. Oh how cold.!

Ian 30 Tuesday. Mr. D. left for Jackson, previous to which he asked me for a copy of the Whig Song, & when I gave it to him, he asked me if those were my sentiments, I of course said yes, as they were only good Whig sentiments. He said Mr. Frink wished an invitation if we had a Clay Ball & I very readily promised it. Marion Davis came down this morning to make a new alpacha dress under the supervision of Celeste. Spent the day knitting. Tres Froid.

White to Mrs. Blair's funeral started quite early & Oh! such a storm rain, hail & snow, arrived there safe and found the house crowded was obliged to stand up during service. the corpse was one of the sweetest, looking corpses that I ever beheld. Saw Mrs. Hamblin & Mrs. Knight, the latter lady invited me home with her to dinner. went. was introduced to Miss McArthur the Milliner, a very pert woman of about 25. I should think. Went to Mr. Rands store & traded $4.50, saw Mr. Jewett. came home in a terrible snow storm.

Davis & myself spent the afternoon at Mrs. Williams with Mrs. W. & Miss Allen, laughed at Marion considerable about Mr. C. Read aloud during the evening.

Feb 3 Saturday - Spent the day doing a little of everything. learned a new turn to the "soldiers Dream" from Marion Davis & sung all day much to the annoyance of Mother. Tomorrow we are to take Marion D. home.

Feb 4 Sunday - Got up midling early, helped do up the work & about two oclock, Marion, Celeste, Mr. John & myself started in an ox sled for Tom Benton, about the time we got ready to start it commenced hailing & oh what a storm! when we got about 3 quarters of a mile from home the oxen ran off the road & oh! we had the most charming upset ever heard of, I fell on the buffalo robe & we were all disposed of quite comfortably, no bones broken - after a short delay, during which we were occupied in picking ourselves up, we again proceeded towards our place of destination, notwithstanding the "rain and hail, & sleet & snow fell thick as hasty pudding" after a while we arrived at the house of Mr. Davis. saw the Misses Fisher, & Miss Phoebe Searls. Mrs. D. & Mr. D. stayed some time. took tea. & after tea started for home. the storm being over we arrived safe and had a very pleasant ride. I received an invitation to attend the party at Mr. Southworth's with Mr.

Feb 6 Tuesday - Every thing is "hurly burly" "topsy turvey" the pedlars talked of leaving but did not. Mr. Root (one of the pedlars) gave me a pair of side combs. Father purchased a clock in the afternoon Mrs & Mr. Davis came down to see if I would let M.A.D. have my dark bonnet, to go to Tecumsch. did not let it go. They spent the afternoon & evening. Found Mrs. C. who we had not seen for two years well & looking as usual. Mrs. Hatch very poorly indeed. had a very pleasant visit & started home by the mill & oh what a ride! no broken limbs however. when we arrived in sight of our dwelling place we were somewhat alarmed at such an unusual collection of sleighs, sled & c, came in & lo & behold who would we find but E.B. Bostwick, Geo. S. Lovett & little Tommy Lewis. Mr. Root, Mr. Rathbone & Mr. Kingsley, Mr. Antoine Campau & a Fanning Mill Pedlar - got supper nearly ready when in comes Miss Abi Kellogg & Orson from Grand Rapids. I was very glad to see them, but old recollections came thronging o'er me & it made me sad, sad, very sad; did not go to bed until 12 oclock & Abi & myself slept together & talked 'til about 3.

Feb 14 Wednesday - Arose midling early & made preparations to go with Abi & Marion up to Mrs. Davis to make a visit as Abi leaves this afternoon. About 10 oclock we started for Tom Benton. on the way I sang the Whig song for Miss Abi. Met Mrs. Cook at Mrs D. had a very good visit. talked over old times & c. ¹ Frank Dean, in an undated address to the Eaton County Pioneer Society said "on the 14th day of March 1840, the county commissioners voted that all business of the county should be done in 'the village of Charlotte at the house of William Stoddard.' The commissioners who were so favorably impressed with the 'house of Stoddard' may have there been lost in the maze of the 'Virginia Reel,' or perchance their eyes have rested fondly on some prepossessing jug in the 'cellar of Stoddard.' Around the old Eagle ("the house of Stoddard') unless tradition tells false tales, the richest historic associations of our city once clustered. At her cheerful fireside, our village fathers loved to linger and waste the winter nights, in cracking nuts and jokes, and spinning yarns of wild adventure. Here too the mothers often came, and chased with busy tongues and fingers, the happy hours away. How often through her halls the measured tread of tireless feet to the music of Hackett's fiddle did resound. Merry voices long since hushed once made her rafters ring with glee. For over twenty years she stood a Mecca to the weary traveler, and to the pioneer a continuing memorial of happy days.

Feb 22 Thursday - Today is the day of the Party a lovely day but oh how muddy! the day passes slowly. The Pedlars are back & the fiddler here. About dark Levi & Miss Fisher & Mr. Johnson & Miss Fisher, at dark Mr. & Mrs. Gale, Cushing, Shaw & Dunton, came up & several others. Walked up stairs with S.M.R. & although I could scarcely set up yet I danced with all the animation I was master of. the party however was very delightful Mother & Father danced & everything went off very pleasantly indeed. Mr. R. was voted the best gentleman dancer & Miss M.M.F. The best lady dancer. danced till 2 or 3 oclock.

Feb 23 Friday - Went to bed after the company left & slept until 1 oclock, got up and lounged around the remainder of the day. my cold as bad as ever & myself feeling very bad.

Feb 24 Saturday - Celeste's birthday. 30 years old. The Pedlars left this morning. In the afternoon Mrs. Davis came here & the girls are going up to Tom Benton.

(Following nearly 6 months of silence, Emma resumed her dairy in August 1843.)

Aug. 11 Sunday - Once more I take up my pen to resume my long neglected Journal, days, weeks, & even months have passed since last I committed my thought to the pages of my Journal; I have not confidence like many others to write what I think & then read it after a lapse of months or years, it may be that my mind is more fluctuating & again it may be that I am less able to bear the proof that I have changed, though it be only in small matters, which ever it be I fear I shall never accustom myself to keeping a Register of all my thoughts or even actions but "Nous Verrous".

There is no church today & consequently nothing to vary the usual dull routine of business on the Sabbath. the day is very lovely. I sat up so late last night singing "Glees" & "Whig songs" that I do not feel remarkably brilliant today. W.S. Barnum of Ohio (my cousin) is now here on a visit, two weeks to day since he came, he is going to wait until after the "Whig Mass Meeting" which is to come off next Friday 16th. for the "glorifications" of the Statesman Henry Clay & Theadore Frelinghysen to each of whom be long life, health & prosperity & moreover may the first be the next one to occupy the chair now filled by the Wretch John Tyler & may the last occupy the place which "Tyler John" would have had if our Lamented Harrison had lived. Sincerely do I hope that the Whigs by their spirited "turnout on Friday will manifest their determination to " help fan the flame which is everywhere burning Loco-Focoism to a cinder." So for today I will leave Politics. I have been looking for a letter from my dear Kitty but no, I do not even get proof of her being in the land of the living. The Mass meeting has come & gone, it went off gloriously for the Whigs 400 - 100 Ladies. was introduced to several persons.

Sep 5 Thursday - Several days ago received an invitation to be present at Miss Marion Davis's Nineteenth birthday. I arose not very early & did several things about the house preparatory to getting ready for Tom Benton. At 12 oclock Miss A.C. Hughes & Miss E. Allen came over "all armed & equipped" & in company with them, Miss C. Davis, Mr. N.A. Johnson & George Johnson I started for Tom Benton but "mirable dictu" the starting was mere nothing. Such roads! Oh! such roads! fortunately, we arrived there a few minutes after 1 found Marion in high life and good humor. Mrs. Davis as lively as usual. Spent the afternoon very pleasantly indeed & after having present of a splendid Bouquet, started for home, arrived in the city just at dark; parted with Miss A & Miss H, & a very few minutes after received an invitation to go with Miss Allen & watch with Miss C. Richards, went, found Mrs. Baldwin & daughter there making a call, Miss B. is not very tall, nor very slender, a very white transparent complexion, but not very agreeable or intelligent. found Clarisa quite poorly. after Mrs. Andrew went to bed, Ervilla & myself had a long chat & the hours flew by unheeded. E. is engaged to a Mr. J.C. Bellows expects to be married in December, & invited me to be her bridesmaid. I promised to if all is well. Very pleasant.

Sep 6 Friday - Came home from Andrew's between 4 & 5 oclock & slept till 8. arose very much refreshed, sewed & when father came up to tea hc asked me to go & help him rake hay, accordingly, after supper I got my sun bonnet.

Sun 10 Nov - Mr. Milletts folks leave today; helped get the breakfast & assisted some in doing up the work, set down in the kitchen & read my papers received yesterday from Mr. Macy, chatted some with Mr. Johnson & Mr. Hibbard, received from the latter a present of raisins. About Noon Mr. Millet came over & invited us over to tea, promised to go, just as we were about starting, Mr. Lawrance & Mr. Scout came up from Marshall. I received from the hands of Mr. L. a parcel from "mine own dear Kate containing a bracelet of her own hair a lock of her boys; a cravat collar & last though not least a letter from herself kind & affectionate as ever. Some delay was occasioned by the new arrivals after which the party started Mesrs Hayden, Hibbard & Johnson, Miss C. Davis & myself. Found Mrs. M & Miss M. Davis in very good spirits & they gave us a nice tea. spent the evening very pleasantly. W.B.H. assisted me home. Weent to bed about 10 left Celeste sitting up with Johnson.

Nov. 11 - Got up & helped get breakfast, after which Celeste went to washing & I did the house work. In the evening Mr. Hibbard came into the kitchen I gave him a turkeys heart wrapped up very nicely with the following piece of poetry.

The heart, the heart oh let it be A true & beautcous thing As kindly warm & nobly free As turkey's nestling wing - he laughed said he was much obliged &c & there I supposed the matter would end.

Nov 12 Tuesday - Did the house work; 16 men here it being County Canvass. Mr. Hibbard gave me a parcel, he said it was from Marion Davis, upon opening it I found it to the heart nicely done up with the following note.

Miss E.C. Stoddard

Permit me to return your invaluable present, as I think you have taken the advantage of the original. possessor & given it without consulting the feelings of the one who has the most right to dictate in a matter of such importance. had it been your own I confess should have been highly flattered, but although this is Leap year I have not as you might infer flattered myself with the vain hope of obtaining a present which would as you doubt have guessed ere this be received by me with pleasure.

What's Trumps/forever.

I saw him several times during the day in the evening he came into the kitchen & I had quite a chat with him. He is quite agreeable. Rather tall; quite slim, dark complexion, black hair & eyes, fine, intelligent eyes & upon the whole quite good looking. Nous Verrous.

Nov. 13 Wednesday - Arose quite early. assisted about getting breakfast. after the mail came in Fred came in & brought me a good long letter from W.S. Barnum & one from G.F. Macy, a very polite & gentlemanly letter. Stayed in the kitchen doing house work all day. H. came in the evening.

Nov. 14 Thursday - Helped do the work. Miss M. Davis came over to bake for Mrs. Millet., Celeste & myself hurried to get the work done so as to go & see Mrs. Millet. Started just after dark, got there & was introduced to Mrs. Millets sister Mrs. Flory quite a Lady like woman in appearance. Spent the forepart of the evening very pleasantly. I received from Mrs. Millet a bracelet of Mr. Hibbards hair, she made quite a laugh when she gave it to me by some remarks. After we had visited about an hour who should come in but Mrsrs. Hibbard & Hayden. stayed & spent the remainder of the evening very pleasantly. Mr. Hibbard assisted me home.

Once again, Emma took leave from writing in her diary, resuming with two entries in April, 1844

April 1 Tuesday - Arose midling early, helped get the breakfast after which I spent the day in our room with Marion Sewing. had a short call from Mr. H. in the afternoon. Fooled Millett nicely by means of a letter.

Mr. Gee & Brown are here to get some Stock toward payment of Fathers Land bought of Mr. Page. I let them have my "Calico Calves" for $25.00

Oh Well! I have been obliged to sing "Away with Melancholy" several times to keep my spirits up, rather sad times these, dark! Dark! Dark! if you look back, dark on either side & worse than all dark ahead. Went in the kitchen to make Toast Water for Marion Preparatory to going to bed had a short chat a kiss & sweet "Good Night and pleasant dreams," from _____. Lovely Day.

April 2 Wednesdav - In quite fine spirits this morning & destined as usual to have them all destroyed. A letter informing me of a previous courtship &c. I believe fate is against me for surely I am sorely tried. Had a long confidential chat with Mrs. Hale (I love that woman)) She, & I am glad, thinks he is not so much to blame, t'were a vain task for me to endeavor to make a transcript of my thoughts, I eschew the attempt. Mr. Helshuimer of Ohio, arrived in town today & brought the news of the marriage of one of my old schoolmates (Eliza Kent) to a New York gentleman Mr. Poge. Success!

Mr. H. spent the evening in our room. Expects Mary out this summer. Cold & Windy.

And so ended Emma's attempt at keeping a diary. She and Hibbard did not make a match of it. On July 16, 1865, when she was 36, she married Alonzo H. Kesler, 30. They had two children, Kate Mable, and William. Emma died in 1868 when she was only 39.

Juntunens Family History Project:

Juntunens in both North America and Finland have begun an ambitious joint research project with the goal of ultimately publishing a book containing their family genealogies, histories, family stories, and biographies. It is an extensive data collection effort which will evolve over several years.

In Finland, the Juntunen Family Society headed by Kalle Juntunen of Hyrynsalmi has commissioned Matti Kankaanpaa, Finland's 1992 Genealogist of the Year, for all known Juntunens in Finland from the year 1550 to 1900 onward. Volume I of the series, which will include information from 1550 to 1800 is scheduled for publication in 1998. Purchase information will be announced as soon as it is available.

Juntunen Descendants, related family members, and researchers are being sought to contribute family data, stories, poetry, artwork, music, and photographs for the planned North American Juntunen family book. Volunteers interested in being Juntunen family-branch contact people are also needed.

Write to: John & Ruth Stierna at their internet address: jnrstierna@aol.com or Mailing address: 2600 Wiley Terrace, Haymarket, VA 20169-1501. Or write to Margaret Smith at her internet address: wanhamas@juno.com or mailing address: 7255 E. St. Joe Hwy., Grand Ledge, Michigan 48837-9124. On request, we will send guidelines for data collection and submission, as well as blank family layout pages for recording and submitting.

Editor Page:

Hello Fellow Members,

Again we come to the end of our year. It seems to come around much faster, have you noticed. It is hard to believe that our society will be starting our 9th year in 1998.

Change in Officers

To let all of our members know, we have had a change in three officers. Our treasurer R. Jeanne Sidnam moved away and resigned her office. That office was filled by the appointment of Stephen Smith of Charlotte to complete the year. Due to an increase in her work load and family demands, the office of Recording Secretary, which was held by Debra Eddy for 8 years has been filled by the appointment of Mary Ann Wood. We want to thank Debra for a great job that she has done for us. Since I the Correspondence and Membership Secretary, and was then asked to become Editor of the Quest, the board felt that I had my plate too full. (I agree to that) The society has created a separate office of Membership Secretary by amendment to the by-laws. The new Membership Secretary is Barbara Smith of Charlotte. These people have volunteered to hold office until elections are held in January. Our thanks to Jeanne Sidnam and Debra Eddy for the fine jobs they did for the society.

Grant

This year the society applied for a Grant that was being offered by the Broderbund Banner Blue Division which sells the Family Tree Maker genealogy computer program. Well, we didn't get any of the grant but we did receive a copy of their Family Tree Maker Vol. 4 edition computer program to use on our computer in the research rooms. This will be for the use of individuals who want to do a search on their families. Not to enter data about their families. We have several members who are donating their CD's that go with this program. I think a lot of people will find this a useful addition to our research materials. There will be a charge for using the laser printer.

Memorial Fund

The Society has approved the starting of a Memorial Fund. The society would receive funds from anyone who wishes to donate in the memory of someone. Those funds would be to purchase research materials in memory of that person. We also will accept the donation of books in the memory of a person. The Society has a policy that upon the death of a member a book is purchased by the society in memory of that person.

Help !!

The society is in need of a Microfilm Reader. The reader we had was old when we purchased it eight years ago. The speedometer cable was over worked and broke. (That is the part which makes the handle turn) We have been unable to find a replacement as the age of the machine is a factor. This machine is a vital part of our research rooms. I have checked and a new reader that does not print will cost a minimum of $500.00. I called a company and found that a Microfiche /Microfilm Reader Printer will cost about $6000.00. We have been given a check in the amount of $125.00 to start us on the way. Donated by the family of Gloria M. (Bush) Hampton in her memory. If you can help, donations in any amount will be gladly accepted. If each of our members would donate $ 5.00 we would be able to get the new reader. This is a very important machine and used every day by members and public alike.

Indexing Committee

Our indexing group has been given the use of the second floor of the Sheriff's Residence. By us doing the repair to plaster and the painting will help Courthouse Square with the interior restoration of the building. We are asking our members to donate $1.00 toward paint for this project when you pay your dues.

Bus Trip

Bus Trip to Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana was enjoyed by 38 persons, on Saturday November 1. This was the second year a trip was sponsored by the society. A great day of research was enjoyed by all. We stopped at the Old Country Buffet for dinner on the way home. We enjoyed a movie on the TV/VCR which was kindly provided by one of our members.

Cook Book

We still need those recipes for the cook book. You can send photocopies to make it easy.

Pedigree Charts

Last issue I asked for your Pedigree charts. I have heard from only a couple of you. I want to thank you. If you can't remember if you have sent your charts, just drop us a line, call, or send an e-mail and we'll check it out.

Special Thanks

We have a special member, I want to tell you about. Her name is Edith Engel. She lives at Roscommon, MI. Edith found out that when she shops at the Carter's IGA store near her, that she can send us her cash register receipts. We can turn them in for what is called Community Cash. So if you have a Carter's IGA store near where you shop, please send us you receipts. Thank You !, Edith and keep those receipts coming.
